

Should I Say It or Not?

When you are angry or someone has upset you, you may shout or say something hurtful. Look at the cards below. Read what the children say and then decide if you think it is something you should say to people or not? Cut out the cards below and put them on the mouth where you think they belong.

I should say that!

I should NOT say that!

Charlie was pushed over in the playground.

Charlie says, 'Ouch! That hurt, don't push me!'

Kim asks her friend to play teachers with her. Her friend says, 'No!'

Kim says, 'I'm not your friend anyway. I don't want to play anymore!'

Rahul gets full marks in his spelling test.
He looks at Tom's work and sees that he got three out of six spellings correct.

Rahul laughs at Tom.
Tom says, 'Shut up!'

Maja asks her friend if she wants to come to her house. Her friend says that she can't because she has dancing.

Maja says, 'That's OK, you can come another time.'
